Prelude Benedictus Alec Rowley

*Processional Hymn Sing with All the Saints in Glory UMH # 702

- 1) Sing with all the saints in glory, sing the resurrection song!
Death and sorrow, earth's dark story, to the former days belong.
All around the clouds are breaking, soon the storms of time shall cease;
in God's likeness we, awaking, know the everlasting peace.

- 2) O what glory, far exceeding all that eye has yet perceived!
Holiest hearts, for ages pleading, never that full joy conceived.
God has promised, Christ prepares it, there on high our welcome waits.
Every humble spirit shares it; Christ has passed th'eternal gates.

- 3) Life eternal! heaven rejoices; Jesus lives, who once was dead.
Join we now the deathless voices; child of God, lift up your head!
Patriarchs from the distant ages, saints all longing for their heaven, prophets, psalmists, seers, and sages, all await the glory given.

*Call to Worship

Liturgist: Come, you saints of God! Worship the Lord, our King.

All: We gather in the presence of Jesus and in communion with all the saints of God.

Liturgist: Come and drink from the fountain of living water.

All: We worship the Holy One, the Almighty, the Lord, and our thirsts are quenched.

Liturgist: Blessed be the Lord, now and forever!

All: We will bless the name of the Lord. We will praise our great God with all the hosts of heaven!

[*stand as you are able]

Opening Prayer:

God of the ages, we praise You for all your servants who have done justice, loved mercy, and walked humbly with You. We praise You for all who have sought Your new creation, and who, by their lives of discipleship, have shown a steadfast faith and led us to Jesus. We thank You for our loved ones who have finished their race, and we pray that with them, we may follow in the way of Christ, and come to dwell in Your holy city, sharing the inheritance of all the saints. This we ask through Your Son, Jesus, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

*Hymn of Praise *Revelation Song Paige Hartsell with Responsive Readings from Revelation 5:6-10, 7:9-17

Liturgist: And between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders I saw a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain. And he went and took the scroll from the right hand of him who was seated on the throne. And when he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each holding a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. And they sang a new song, saying,

All: “Worthy are you to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slain, and by your blood you ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation, and you have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth.”

Liturgist: Then I looked, and I heard around the throne and the living creatures and the elders the voice of many angels, numbering myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, saying with a loud voice,

All: “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!”

Liturgist: And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, saying,

All: “To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!”

[All Sing]

- 1) Worthy is the Lamb who was slain,
Holy, Holy, is He.
Sing a new song, to him who sits on Heaven's mercy seat.

[repeat]

Chorus:

Holy, Holy, Holy
Is the Lord God Almighty
Who was, and is, and is to come.
With all creation I sing
Praise to the King of Kings,
You are my everything
And I will adore You.

- 2) Clothed in rainbows of living color
Flashes of lightning, rolls of thunder Blessing and honor, strength and glory and power be to You the only wise King. (Chorus)

Liturgist: And the four living creatures said, “Amen!” and the elders fell down and worshiped... After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice,

All: “Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

Liturgist: And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying,

All: “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

Liturgist: Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, clothed in white robes, and from where have they come?” I said to him, “Sir, you know.” And he said to me, “These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

All: “Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat. For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

[All Sing]

3) Filled with wonder, awestruck wonder
At the mention of your name.
Jesus your name is power
Breath, and living water
Such a marvelous mystery.

Chorus:

Holy, Holy, Holy
Is the Lord God Almighty
Who was, and is, and is to come.
With all creation I sing
Praise to the King of Kings
You are my everything
And I will adore You.

Resting in the Promises of Jesus

Liturgist 1: The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

Liturgist 2: I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. I know my sheep and my sheep know me – just as the Father knows me and I know the Father – and I lay down my life for the sheep. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand.

Liturgist 1: He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Liturgist 2: Come to me, all who labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

Liturgist 1: Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Liturgist 2: Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.

Liturgist 1: Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Liturgist 2: In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world. I have come that you might have life and have it abundantly. Whoever believes in me, as Scripture has said, rivers of living water will flow from within them.

Liturgist 1: Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Liturgist 2: Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also.

Hymn of Response For All the Saints

6) From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast, through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost:
Alleluia, Alleluia!

Prayer of Commendation

O God, all that You have given us is Yours.
As You first gave these faithful servants and friends to us,
So now we give them back to You.
Receive them, Lord, into Your arms of mercy.
Raise them up with all Your people.
Receive us also, and raise us into new life.
Help us so love and serve You in this world that we may enter into Your joy in the world to come.
We pray this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

*Closing Hymn Crown Him with Many Crowns UMH #327

- 1) Crown him with many crowns, the Lamb upon his throne,
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns all music but its own.
Awake, my soul, and sing of him who died for thee,
and hail him as thy matchless King through all eternity.
- 2) Crown him the Lord of life, who triumphed o'er the grave, and rose victorious in the strife for those he came to save.
His glories now we sing, who died, and rose on high, who died, eternal life to bring, and lives that death may die.
- 3) Crown him the Lord of love; behold his hands and side,
those wounds, yet visible above, in beauty glorified.
All hail, Redeemer, hail! For thou hast died for me;
thy praise and glory shall not fail throughout eternity.

JACK MONROE BENFIELD 1937-2010

Jack Monroe Benfield, Pastor Emeritus of Garner UMC, was born on January 8, 1937 in Statesville, NC to George Richard and Mildred Parlier Benfield. When he was four, the family moved to Newton, NC where he grew up, attending First UMC and graduating from Newton-Conover High School. His call to ministry was unexpected and profound at age fifteen.

Jack was a regional finalist for the Angier B. Duke Scholarship to Duke University and was offered a scholarship to cover tuition and fees. Not being able to afford the remaining costs, he turned it down. High Point College offered the needed scholarship assistance and had a strong program for pre-ministerial students. God's hand was at work. At the beginning of Jack's sophomore year (1956), he met an incoming freshman named Jane Wrenn Coates from Garner, NC. They both graduated in May 1959 and were married June 13, 1959. Thus began a loving ministry team. Jack was always quick to tell you that Jane was his supporter and companion in ministry.

After a year and a half of seminary, Jack was diagnosed with glaucoma. Because of the conditions of his eyes, he was told he would be blind by middle age. His District Superintendent suggested he might consider a career in counseling. Subsequently, he was placed on special appointment to the North Carolina Commission for the Blind where he served for six years as a counselor and later as the Raleigh District Supervisor. During this time he completed his education requirement through the Conference Course of Study, was ordained Deacon then Elder in full, completed a Masters Degree in Rehabilitation Counseling, preached often at different churches and served three short interims. With eyes stable, God led him back to pastoral ministry.

Jack's 45 years under episcopal appointment also include Harper's Charge (Lenoir) and Wesley Chapel (Troutman), in the Western North Carolina Conference. In the North Carolina Conference, he served Trinity (Franklin Co.), Spring Hill (Harnett Co.), Spring Valley/Flat Rock (Vance Co.), Kenansville Parish (which he successfully established to include Kenansville, Wesley, Serecta and Woodland churches in Duplin Co.), Fremont, Apex, Zebulon, Westminster (Kinston) and First UMC in Henderson. He also served Garner as an associate (1972-73) and a short interim as Senior Pastor in 2000.

Jack served in several District and Conference capacities. Since the mid-1970's, he was a designated mentoring pastor to candidates for full-time ministry. He was selected as a delegate to the 1980 General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Jack and Jane moved to Garner in June 2000 after a heart condition he had battled since 1981 forced him to retire. He remained active at Garner UMC – singing, teaching, preaching as often as he could and volunteering to serve the community and church where needed – until a stroke took his life on November 8, 2010. The response following his death was a testimony to the life he lived, sharing his faith, love, wisdom, guidance, comfort and sense of humor with all he met.

He leaves his wife, Jane, and two daughters, Terri Leeman and husband Jerry (Raleigh) and Susan Feuerstein and husband Lewis (Holly Springs). He also leaves five grandchildren – Shannon Ritchie and husband Carl (Durham), Emily Feuerstein, Evan Philmon, Eric Feuerstein, Ryan Jackson Philmon, a brother, R.Allen Benfield (Rocky Mount), and two step-grandchildren Cory and Zac Leeman. He was preceded in death by his parents, a brother, Douglas R. Benfield (d.March 2010), and an infant daughter.

Jack was a devoted and loving servant, husband, daddy, granddaddy and friend who served through his last day (as he had hoped) and passed peacefully.

Submitted by the family.

HENRY ARTHUR BIZZELL, JR. 1928 - 2011

Henry A. Bizzell, Jr., was born at Newton Grove, Sampson County, North Carolina, July 25, 1928, the son of Henry Arthur and Ruth Hudson Bizzell. He died Monday, February 21, 2011, at Rolling Ridge Retirement Center in Newton Grove.

Henry graduated from Trinity College at Duke University and received his M.Div. from Duke Divinity School. In addition to being a loving husband and father, Henry served as a faithful minister in the United Methodist Church of the North Carolina Conference for over forty years.

He married Grace Pow at Lake Waccamaw, North Carolina, October 31, 1965. Grace was a Baptist Christian education before their marriage and also had served with the Peace Corps in Sengal, Africa. Henry and Grace were a team in ministry with her faithful support and leadership evident in the churches they served.

To this union was born a daughter, Meredith "Merribeth." Later they opened their home to a son by adoption, Henry Richardson Bizzell, "Richie," who died suddenly in 1991

Henry's father was a storekeeper in Newton Grove. At the funeral, one of the pastors related how Henry worked in his father's store. On one occasion he opened a barrel of molasses. After filling the customer's order he found he could not shut the valve. Calmly, Henry gathered every container in site to collect the oozing fluid. When all were filled he simply stood there and watched as the rest of the contents spilled on the floor. His unruffled response was characteristic throughout Henry's ministry. No matter what he faced, he did so with confident optimism and quiescence.

Henry was preceded in death by his wife, Grace, his son, Henry Richardson Bizzell, a sister, Ruth Hudson Hamilton, a brother-in-law, William E. Kidd and ac sister-in-law, Maude Bess "Beth" Pow. He is survived by his daughter, Meredith Beth "Merribeth" Bizzell of Raleigh, a sister, Hester Anne Kidd of Washington, a brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Robert and Betty Pow of Fayetteville, a brother-in-law, Donny Ray Hamilton of Chattanooga, Tennessee, numerous cousins, nephews and nieces.

A service of committal was be held, February 26, 2011 at 11:00 a.m. at Hillcrest Cemetery in Newton Grove, NC, followed by a celebration of Henry's life at Newton Grove United Methodist Church at noon. Officiating were his pastor, the Rev. Scott Foster, assisted by the Rev. Lyle Harper and the Rev. David Harriss. The Sacred Harp Singers of Research Triangle Area, an organization in which Henry participated for many years, provided music for the service.

We will remember Henry's kind ways, his prophetic ministry and the example of Christian life and leadership he left for us all.

*Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last.*

*With saints enthroned on high,
Thou dost thy Lord proclaim,
And still to God salvation cry,
Salvation to the Lamb!*

GEORGE FRANKLIN BLANCHARD 1932-2011

George F. Blanchard, Jr. was born February 22, 1932, in Cumberland County, North Carolina. He died in Fayetteville on March 16, 2011.

Pursuing a career in the U. S. Army, Dr. Blanchard enjoyed being a soldier and rose from the lowest rank, a private, to the highest enlisted rank, first sergeant. He attended Infantry Officer Candidate School and graduated as a Second Lieutenant before promotion tp first lieutenant and captain. He was an officer with the 5th Special Forces Group and a master parachutist.

After his Army career, he believed God wanted him to serve as a minister. . He enrolled at Holmes Bible College where he earned the degree of Bachelor of Sacred Literature. Holmes later awarded him the honorary doctor of divinity degree. He went on to earn a Bachelor of Arts Degree from North Carolina Wesleyan College with a double major in psychology and religion. He went on to Duke Divinity School and earned the master of divinity degree. From Drew University, he received the doctor of ministry in pastoral counseling.

George grew up in Fayetteville and married a young lady who lived down the street, Lillian Davis. He maintained that Lillian played a major role in his conversion and his spiritual growth. They were married for fifty-nine years. To their union were born three sons, George, Jr., Harvey and Randy and a daughter, Benita. Randy Blanchard, following in his father's footsteps, is likewise a minister of the North Carolina Conference. George Blanchard served in the U. S. Army for fifteen years followed by thirty-one years as a pastor in eastern North Carolina.

In addition to his wife and children, George is survived by a brother, Harvey, Jr. and sisters, Pauline Davis, Helen Johnson and Alice Jackson. He had six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. RUTH EVELYN CULLIPHER BOONE

1917 - 2010

Ruth Boone, widow of the Reverend Daniel Clifton Boone, was born November 6, 1917 in Williamston, Martin County, North Carolina, the daughter of Herbert Cullipher and his wife, Lucy. She died in Nashville, North Carolina in her ninety-third year, October 29, 2010.

She was married to Daniel C. Boone in Williamston, October 24, 1940. Dan was her minister when they met. He asked her out, they fell in love and were married on October 24, 1940. Ruth and Dan loved talking about their courtship and visiting the tulip fields at Terra Ceia farm in Pantego, NC.

Ruth was always supportive of her husband's ministry, active especially in the women's work and the ministry to children. Ruth was a loving wife and mother and a wonderful cook for her family and the church. She helped Dan raise flowers to supplement their income. They loved ministering and entertaining the community with services, events and open houses. Ruth was famous for her sweet potato casserole and butternut squash pies. She cooked many fried chickens for the the visiting preachers. She helped Dan raise flowers to supplement their income. Ruth always said her life had been serving the Lord, talking to people, and loving flowers.

Together they served Robersonville, Littleton, Person Street in Fayetteville, Bynum, Garland, Dover, Pink Hill, Pinetops, Bladen, Moncure, Norman, West End, Stokes, Winsteadville and Halifax. It was at Halifax that they retired, a pleasant location not far Daniel's birthplace in Northampton County. At Halifax they purchased the old Methodist parsonage and devoted several years in repairing it and developing the yard. After her husband's death in 1993, Ruth continued to work in the yard and be active in church life. I recall her gracious presence at Rocky Mount District events when I served as district superintendent.

She is survived by her children, Daniel "Dan" Boone and wife, Peggie of Bolivia NC, Patricia "Pat" Boone Britt of Rockingham NC, and Mary Boone Tillery and husband Charles Tillery of Tillery NC and James "Jim" Boone and wife, Pak from Morrisville, NC. Her surviving grandchildren are Lisa Marie Britt and Elizabeth Ann Britt of Rockingham NC, Nechol Boone Thayer and husband, Scott of Huntersville NC, Mary Leigh Tillery and John Richard Tillery of Tillery NC, and Tara Boone of Morrisville NC.

Funeral services were held Sunday, October 31 at Halifax United Methodist Church with the pastor, the Reverend Steve Formo officiating. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

It was my privilege to know and love Ruth Boone. She was a remarkable woman who embodied the words of the writer of Proverbs:

*Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.
The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.
She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.
She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.
She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.
She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.
She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.
She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.
She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.
She is not afraid of the snow for all her household are clothed with scarlet.
Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.
Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.
She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.
She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.*

*Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.
Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.*

ANGUS MCKAY CAMERON 1926 - 2010

Angus McKay Cameron, of Carol Woods Retirement Community, Chapel Hill, N.C., died December 12th, 2010, at the age of 84.

Angus, or "A Mac" to many of his family members and boyhood friends, was born February 17th, 1926 to Alton Monroe Cameron and May McKay Cameron of Vass, N.C. He attended Lakeview School and Duke University, where he graduated at age 19. By age 23, he had completed graduate programs at Garrett Seminary in Evanston, Ill., and Union Seminary in New York City.

As a divinity school student, Angus participated in a number of service projects, including church construction in Carrolton, Ga., and two trans-Atlantic relief efforts transporting cattle to war-torn Europe with the organization that would later become Heifer International. During his ministry, he was a committed member of the Methodist Federation for Social Action, and was actively involved in numerous faith and justice issues.

While at Union, Angus met Catherine (Kay) Maynard, a fellow student. In 1950, they married and began their long partnership in ministry and service. They recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary.

Angus and Kay lived first in Brooklyn, N.Y., where Angus was assistant pastor of Cadman Memorial Church and pastor of Knickerbocker Avenue Methodist Church. In 1954, they moved to North Carolina, where Angus served as a United Methodist minister for multiple churches in Hyde County (Amity, Engelhard, Watson's Chapel, and Gulrock), Northampton County (Jackson, Rehoboth, New Hope, and Lasker) and Wilson County (Evansdale, Black Creek), and then single churches in Fayetteville (St. Andrews), Candor, and Goldston, N.C.

By nature, Angus was drawn to those in need, especially those who are often forgotten -- the old, the sick, the shut-in -- and he was a "minister" to them in the truest sense of the word. He loved his work and his congregations, and served them faithfully. He and Kay met many wonderful people in the churches they served, and formed lasting friendships.

Angus loved being outdoors, particularly walking and gardening, and enjoyed sharing his bounty with friends, neighbors, and parishioners. In his quiet way, he was a passionate environmentalist, setting an example with his thoughtful stewardship of the earth and its resources.

Angus enjoyed spending time every summer at the family cabin in Smyrna, N.Y. There, he created a simple yet comfortable space for the enjoyment of other family members. His family has fond memories of watching him set off on his daily hikes to Rose's Pond, putting out seeds for the chipmunks, and carefully tending a grill full of barbecued chicken.

Angus is survived by his wife, Kay; sons Steve Cameron and his wife Barbara of Durham, N.C., and Paul Cameron of Brattleboro, Vt.; grandchildren Cate and Anna Cameron; and many nieces and nephews, among others.

A memorial service was held in the Assembly Hall at Carol Woods Retirement Community, 750 Weaver Dairy Road, Chapel Hill, N.C., on December 29, 2010. Rev. Susan Cafferty conducted the service.

JAMES CLAUDE CHAFFIN

1919 - 2005

LUCILLE J. CHAFFIN

1923 - 2011

The Reverend James Claude Chaffin and his wife, Lucille, were both part of a strong heritage of ministry in the North Carolina Conference. He was born in Nags Head, North Carolina, the son of the Reverend Leonidas M. and Elizabeth "Lizzie" Lucas Chaffin.

His grandfather, Washington S. Chaffin (1815-1895) was admitted to the North Carolina Conference in 1840. Claude died, June 19, 2005, in Moore County, thus bringing to a close more than one hundred and seventy years of continuous ministry by the Chaffin family in the North Carolina Conference.

Both Claude and his father were educated at Trinity College and when his father died he was in his junior year. Following graduation from Trinity College in 1941, he entered the Divinity School at Duke.

On December 21, 1943, Claude and Lucille were married in the home of Dr. Paul Neff Garber, Dean of the Divinity School and later Bishop of the North Carolina Conference. Her father officiated at the wedding, assisted by Dr. Garber. She was accompanied by her sister Nell. Claude's best man was Forrest Hedden, a fellow senior at the Divinity School. Lucille, who had graduated from Flora McDonald College, was working as a secretary at the Divinity School at the time of their marriage.

The Chaffin family has a remarkable history. Claude Chaffin was a direct descendant of General Israel Putnam, Revolutionary War hero, and his great grandmother's line is traced back to the Mayflower. He and his sibling made significant contributions to educational, church and public life in North Carolina. Claude's older sister, Nora (1900-1981) was a professor of history at Duke, who wrote Trinity College, the only detailed account of the history of the precursor institutions to Duke University. She was very active in the YMCA movement. His brother, Leonidas M. Chaffin, Jr., was an attorney and clerk of court in Harnett County, also a very active layman in the Methodist Church. A younger sister, Sara, was in high school when their father died, so Claude stepped in to assist his mother with her care and education.

Lucille was the daughter of the Reverend Charles A. Jones and his wife, Elizabeth Wagner Jones. She, her brother and a sister grew up in the parsonages of eastern North Carolina. Charles Jones served in the North Carolina Conference for almost forty years. In his retirement he served another ten years as the evangelist for the Wilmington District. During those last years before his death at age eighty-five, he conducted some fifty revivals and led countless people to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Claude Chaffin was ordained deacon in 1943 and elder in 1945. He and Lucille served the Louisburg Circuit, Swan Quarter, Murphreesboro, Perquimans Charge, Rich Square, Durham: Duke's Chapel, Robbins, Carrboro, Mt. Claude and Lucille were appreciated in every place they served. In retirement they made their home in Robbins and were active in Tabernacle United Methodist Church. It would be appropriate to include in closing the words of a hymn that was printed in the memorial to Lucille's father in 1952.

*The Homeland, O the Homeland, the land of souls—free-born.
No gloomy night is known there, but aye the fadeless morn
I'm sighing for that country, my heart is aching here
There is no pain in the Homeland, to which I am drawing near*

*My Lord is in the Homeland, with angels bright and fair.
No sinful things or evil can ever enter there.
The music of the ransomed is ringing in my ears
And when I think of the Homeland, my eyes are wet with tears.*

*The loved ones in the Homeland are waiting me to come
Where neither death nor sorrow invades their holy home
O dear, dear native country, O rest and peace above Christ bring us all to the Homeland of His eternal love."*

There's been an awful pain, throughout this race,
I know I made it to a peaceful place, I know
I will make it again.*

Standing tall and have no fear at all,
Too see me standing tall and have no fear at all
I will rise again, I will rise again.*

*Take away my pride, I will rise again
Though it seems so hard, i know
You will see me again
I will rise again, I will rise again*

*Seasons come and go, I will rise again
Deep inside I know
Deep inside I know

PAULINE WINSLOW BUNDY METHVIN 1921 - 2010

Pauline Winslow Bundy Methvin went joyfully to be with Jesus on December 3, 2010 after a faithful and productive earthly pilgrimage. Pauline was born near Elizabeth City, NC as the eighth child to Oscar and Gertrude Bundy on October 13, 1921.

Pauline was married to Rayford Methvin on October 12, 1944, the day before her 23rd birthday and one year to the day after their first date. At that time Rayford was serving in the U.S. Coast Guard. Following his military service, Rayford was ordained as a minister in the Evangelical Methodist Church. In 1954 the Methvins began a faith adventure to Brazil where they served as missionaries with OMS (The Oriental Mission Society). While living and working in Brazil Pauline and Rayford adopted two boys, Ray and Paul. In 1967 the Methvin family moved back to North Carolina as Rayford became the President of John Wesley College in Greensboro. During their time in Brazil and at John Wesley, Pauline worked closely beside Rayford as his personal secretary and advisor. Indeed, they served as a team in ministry in every place to which God sent them.

In 1973 following Rayford’s presidency at John Wesley College, he transferred his clergy membership from the Evangelical Methodist Church to our North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. Once again, Pauline proved to be a wonderful and helpful companion in ministry as they faithfully served the following churches: Bladen Charge (Bladen County); Union Chapel (Kittrell); Spring Hill (Mamers); Pee Dee (Rockingham). In 1986 Pauline and Rayford retired, but returned a few years later to active service being appointed to Old Dock UMC (Calabash) from 1994 - 1998. Following their “second” retirement the Methvins settled into their home near Garner, NC. They quickly became involved as a vital part of the worshipping community at Holland’s UMC.

A memorial service celebrating Pauline’s life in Christ was held on December 7, 2010 at Holland’s UMC. During that service it was noted that Pauline’s departure can be compared to a beautiful sunset in that it climaxes a wonderful earthly life and in it we see rays of promise for a glorious tomorrow! Indeed, when Pauline Methvin departed this life and was received into God’s gracious and eternal hands, the words spoken by one of her sons was fulfilled. He said, “The race is won!” Thanks be to God for the life of Pauline Winslow Bundy Methvin. The world is a better place because she ran the race.

TOLEADO MOEINE WEAVER WIGGINS 1935-2010

Moeine was born into a unique family situation. Her mother was married with three children when her husband died. Her father was married with three children when his wife died. When Loyd and Susie married they already had six children together under the age of five. Moeine was the oldest of seven to this union. That meant she was the middle child in a family of thirteen who never gave thought that they were anything but one big family.

She grew up on Ranlo Mill Village near Gastonia with scores of other youth and was involved in all the activities of school, church, and Ranio Mill Village. Moeine's whole life centered around the life of the church. She grew up in church and loved to sing. She loved the old hymns, gospel music, as well as church music. It is little wonder that Moeine and Carson blessed their churches with their singing duets and in quartets and groups within the church.

Moeine and Carson met at a revival service. Their big dates were going to the all night gospel sings in the Charlotte. They married at the young age of seventeen while still in high school. Expecting to live and work in the textile mills, it came as a huge surprise when Carson was awarded a scholarship to N.C. State to study engineering. However, life took another direction when Carson told her that God had called him to preach and that he would use his scholarship to attend Bible College and prepare for the ministry.

She developed friends fast through the years and some of those friendships were even stronger during her illness. The family is grateful for your prayers and many acts of kindness. Words fail to express the deep feelings of gratitude that are in our hearts for all the concern, prayers, and acts of caring.

IVA HARRIS WRIGHT 1914-2011

Iva was born in 1914 in Boaz, Alabama, the daughter of James Asbury and Jolee Hayes Harris. A graduate of John H. Snead Seminary, in 1934 she married the Rev. Carl K. Wright where they served several churches and charges. Their first church was in Cordova, Alabama. In North Carolina they lived and served in Marshallberg, Troy, Hyde County, Conway, Windsor, Roanoke Rapids, Maury and Atlantic. Following her husband's death in 1970, Iva lived in Abingdon, VA, Aurora, CO and Louisburg, NC. Iva's life's work was her job as the preacher's wife. It was a responsibility she took seriously and did very well. She was always prepared to teach a Sunday School class, direct the choir or teach a study course for United Methodist Women. She did all of these things willingly and well. She later held jobs as a librarian, teacher's assistant, church secretary. When she moved to Cypress Glen she felt called to care for those older and more in need of help than herself. She organized a directed a choir to sing at worship services. She held leadership positions in her church circle, practiced oil painting, wrote and recorded her memoirs, and filled several notebooks with her poetry. A book of her poetry is entitled Spare Parts. She was a member of Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church. Iva's outlook on life was positive, and she had the ability to see the good in all people. Because of her pleasant and friendly manner she was loved by many who will miss her wisdom.

Her grandchildren, Syd and Lori Stafford of Hillsborough, NC; Ellen Stafford, Sharon, MA; Charles Stafford and his finance Carrie Lubus of Atlanta, GA; Mike Shannon of Moyock, NC; Autumn and Michael Hurlburt of Hannah, HI; Jade and Jim Gregory of Bend, OR; Nathan and Brenda Wright of Wilson, NC. CAMILLE OGLE YORKEY 1946 - 2010

I first knew Camille Yorkey when she and her husband, Randy, joined Aldersgate United Methodist Church, Durham, where I served as their pastor. Camille worked with various ministries of the church, always abounding in energy and enthusiasm. She always liked to share the story that I asked them to join Aldersgate Church in Durham while standing in their bathroom as Randy bathed their two children

Camille, was born in San Francisco, April 18, 1946, into a military family, the daughter of Jim and Harvie Ogle. He was a career meteorologist with the Air Force. She graduated from Greensboro College, which later in her life honored her with the doctor of divinity degree. While at Greensboro College, she was drawn to Randy Yorkey, an affable and gifted classmate from New York. Their marriage resulted in two children, Rachel and Tyson.

One might trace a real progression toward the ministry for Camille through the jobs she held, first as a schoolteacher and then through several humanitarian organizations including the American Reed Cross. Randy's life unfortunately was cut short by an automobile accident as he returned home in the early hours of the morning while doing inventory at the Duke University Stores where he was the manager. Soon after this tragedy, Camille felt the call of God upon her life to serve as a minister. She entered Duke Divinity School and graduated with a Master of Divinity. She was honored with the distinguished alumni award from Duke Divinity School later in her life.

Her first appointment was as associate pastor, St. Paul, Goldsboro. She is best remembered as founding pastor of three congregations, Seaside in Brunswick County, Faith Harbor in Wilmington and Mighty Wind in Nags Head. The United Methodist Church honored her work with the Harry Denman Evangelism Award, noting that she had brought thousands into a saving knowledge of Christ. She also served in development work at the Methodist Retirement Home.

Camille's battle with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma forced her to take a leave of absence. She was unwilling to sit at home, however, and volunteered to be sent by UMCOR as a chaplain at Ground Zero in 2001. Out of this came a book, A Voice in the Wilderness: A Pastor's Journal from Ground Zero. "Yorkey is a sponge," wrote columnist G.D. Gearino of the Raleigh News & Observer in a 2001 profile. "She absorbs the unhappiness and suffering of others, lets them talk it out, then later wrings it out of her own soul as she sits down at her keyboard." Before her final disability leave, she served as senior pastor at Benson Memorial United Methodist in Raleigh.

Camille Yorkey is survived by her mother, Harvie, one son and one daughter. At the time of her death she was engaged to Rod Cartier of Wilmington. She died in Chapel Hill, June 13, 2010, after a valiant battle with cancer. Her life was celebrated in two services, first in Wilmington at Grace Church, and then in Raleigh at Benson Memorial. The Reverend Ruth Harper Steven and Bishop Hope Morgan Ward officiated and several other pastors participated. Truly, Camille Yorkey was a remarkable woman, a loving mother and grandmother, a gifted pastor and a trusted friend to all who knew and loved her.

*Love's redeeming work is done, fought the fight, the battle won.
Lo, our Sun's eclipse is o'er!
Lo, he sets in blood no more!*

*Lives again our victorious King;
where, O death, is now thy sting?
Dying once, he all doth save;
where thy victory, O grave?*

*Soar we now where Christ has led,
following out exalted Head;
made like him, like him we rise,
ours the cross, the grave, the skies.*
