ADAM HAMILTON

Rev. Adam Hamilton is the founding pastor of the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kansas. He grew up in the Kansas City area, attending Shawnee Mission schools before graduating from Blue Valley High School. He earned a B.A. degree in Pastoral Ministry from Oral Roberts University and a Master of Divinity Degree from Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University.

Adam has received the B'nai B'rith award in Social Ethics, the Denman Award in Evangelism, and the Circuit Rider Award for excellence in church leadership. He was named Distinguished Evangelist of the United Methodist Church by the Foundation for Evangelism, and he was named one of the "Ten People to Watch in America's Spiritual Landscape" by Religion and Ethics Newsweekly. He has been awarded two honorary doctorates and numerous other awards. He currently serves as a Trustee at Saint Paul School of Theology and as a member of the Kansas East Board of Professional Ministry. He lectures on leadership, evangelism and preaching across the country.

The United Methodist Church of the Resurrection has grown from four people in 1990 to over 12,000 adult members with an average weekly worship attendance of over 7,500 in 2008. The church was listed as the most influential mainline church in America in a 2005 survey of American pastors. The Church of the Resurrection has a three-fold focus: 1. Reaching non-religious and nominally religious people and helping them become committed followers of Jesus Christ; 2. Equipping and inspiring members to live their faith in mission to the community and world; and 3. Acting as a catalyst for renewing the mainline church.

Adam is married and has two daughters.

WORSHIP LEADER

ELISE ESLINGER

Growing up as a Methodist preacher's kid in Mississippi, Elise earned her B.A. as a music major from Millsaps College, and was awarded the Masters of Theological Studies by St. Meinrad School of Theology, Indiana, in 1994. She has been a church musician since age fourteen, serving as organist and/or director of music and worship arts ministries in numerous congregations across the country. She served, additionally, as a member of the Conference Council on Ministries staff of the Pacific Northwest Conference on behalf of camping, retreat, youth, intergenerational, spiritual formation, worship and discipleship ministries.

A founding team member of the Upper Room Academy for Spiritual Formation in 1983, Elise was part of the first Advisory Board which created the Upper Room Academy for Spiritual Formation, serving as its first worship coordinator. She has continued in this role or as adjunct faculty presenter for many subsequent 2-year and 5-day Academy teams and other Upper Room programs. She compiled and edited the Upper Room Worshipbook 1985 which was utilized in the Academy sessions for over two decades, as well as in other retreat and seminary contexts and local congregations around the country. She also served as compiler and editor for the exciting and timely new edition of the Worshipbook released in 2006, now in its third printing, and its Accompaniment and Worship Leader edition released in June 2007.

Some of her music and Spanish translations appear in the United Methodist Hymnal. Her work as a member of the worship staff of the General Board of Discipleship during a time of intensive development of new worship and music resources prior to the UM Hymnal 1989 included editorial coordination or contribution toward Celebremos I and 2, Songs of Zion, Hymns for the Four Winds, Psalms for Singing, Singing Our Prayers, and Songs of Shalom.

Elise was the founding Director of the Institute for Applied Theology at United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, and established its Roots and Wings Certificate program for equipping lay leaders and helping clergy re-tool for specialty ministries and new contexts. At UTS she also served as director of the United Sound Seminary Singers, and was deeply engaged in the worship and spiritual life of the seminary and its outreach in the community. She has just retired from these roles at UTS, but is now engaged in the Doctor of Ministry program. She and her husband Dr. Richard Eslinger (who became Academic Dean of UTS in 2008) are frequently called together to be lecturers, retreat leaders, and consultants in many aspects of worship, music, and spiritual formation—including sacramental renewal, preaching and the arts, congregational song and sung prayer, and exploration of the prayer of the Psalms.

She serves regularly as director of the West Ohio Annual Conference Choir, and in varied settings continues to work on behalf of congregations and conference gatherings seeking to renew the hospitable, Wesleyan spirit through worship and song in the emerging 21st century Church.

The Eslingers enjoy three children and their families (especially three grandsons and a new granddaughter), though these loved ones are spread far apart in California, Montana, and North Carolina.

All such reports, recommendations, resolutions, or motions shall be referred to the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

3. Speeches
 - A. Speeches shall be limited to three (3) minutes except by consent of the Annual Conference.
 - B. A member may speak only once on any motion until all who desire to speak have done so, and then he/she may speak only one additional time.
 - C. The chairperson of an agency or someone designated by him/her shall be allowed to speak last on his/her report even though the previous questions have been ordered.
4. Voting
 - A. All votes shall be cast in the bar of the annual conference.* The Annual Conference shall determine the bar of the annual conference at the beginning of the first session.
 - B. A count vote may be ordered or called by any member of the Annual Conference supported by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present and voting.
5. Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences
 - A. All votes shall be cast using the official ballot cards authorized by the Annual Conference. Voting for all lay and clergy delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences shall be by secret ballot.
 - B. Prior to the convening of any annual conference* that will elect delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences, the Conference Secretary will publish eligibility requirements and voting procedures for election of delegates.
 - C. Different colored ballot cards will be provided for lay and clergy members.
 - D. The names of persons receiving less than ten (10) votes shall not be reported to the Conference.
 - E. Five alternates to Jurisdictional Conference shall be elected.
 - F. Invalid ballot cards
 - 1) Each round of balloting shall be numbered consecutively, and the chair shall announce the number of the ballot. Only ballot cards with the proper number affixed shall be valid.
 - 2) Defaced ballot cards will be considered invalid. If a member defaces a ballot card, it may be exchanged for an undamaged one at the Conference Secretary's desk.
 - 3) An electronic ballot card will be considered invalid if it is not marked clearly and darkly with a number 2 pencil or black pen.
 - 4) A ballot card will be considered invalid if it has more or less than the number of votes permitted on that particular ballot.
 - 5) A ballot card will be considered invalid if it indicates a vote for a person already elected.
 - 6) A ballot card will be considered invalid if it indicates a vote for someone not eligible.
 - 7) A ballot card will be considered invalid if it shows that a member has voted more than once on the same ballot card for one candidate.

6. Episcopal Nominations

At the conclusion of an Annual Conference that conducts elections for clergy and lay delegates to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference, the entire newly elected Delegation (clergy and laity) will meet. The first clergy elected will be acknowledged as an automatic nominee for bishop. Other nominations will be received from members of the delegation. (All nominees must meet the qualifications for bishop established by the Southeastern Jurisdiction and by The United Methodist Church.) As soon as possible, officers of the Delegation, and/or those whom they designate, will contact the nominees and give them three weeks to discern God's will for their ministries. Those who accept nomination must submit, by July 15, a one-page biographical statement to the Delegation Secretary, who will distribute all such statements to all members of the Delegation. Before September 1, the Delegation will meet and engage the nominees. This day of discernment will include each nominee: making a presentation (10 minutes), responding to a set of questions composed by the Delegation officers or those whom they designate (10 minutes), responding to questions from the floor of the meeting (10 minutes), and offering closing remarks (1 minute). Immediately after meeting with the nominees, the Delegation will vote, perhaps several times, by written ballot. The nominee, who earns the Delegation's endorsement, must receive at least 60% of the votes cast. If after 5 votes the Delegation present has not cast 60% (or more) of its ballots for one nominee, the Delegation and the Annual Conference will not endorse an episcopal nominee in that election cycle. At the Annual Conference immediately before Jurisdictional Conference, the Delegation's nominee will make a brief speech and be endorsed (or not) by vote of the Annual Conference; endorsement by the Annual Conference requires at least 60% of the votes cast. If after 3 votes the Annual Conference members present have not cast 60% (or more) of their ballots for one nominee, the Annual Conference will not endorse an episcopal nominee in that election cycle. A nominee endorsed by the Annual Conference becomes the Annual Conference's nominee for bishop. This policy becomes effective August 1, 2008.

SECTION II : DISTRICTS

1. Number of Districts
 - A. The number of districts shall be twelve. A motion to change the number of districts must be presented in writing, and must be considered no sooner than the day following its introduction. Any change in the number of districts shall be approved at one annual conference to take effect at the next annual conference.*
2. District Conferences
 - A. A district conference may be held annually in each district.
 - B. The district conference, if one is held, shall be composed of members as determined and specified by the Annual Conference giving attention to inclusiveness. The members shall include all North Carolina clergy members within the district, including retirees; district trustees; district presidents of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship, the United Methodist Men, and United Methodist Women; lay members of the Annual Conference; the Lay Leader of each local church; and up to ten at-large members appointed by the District Superintendent to insure inclusiveness. A note on usage in this document:*

- The terms “North Carolina Annual Conference,” “Annual Conference,” or “Conference” [note the capital letters] refer to the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. These terms refer to an organization.*
- The term “annual conference” [in lower-case letters] refers to the yearly assembly, usually occupying four days in June, at which the North Carolina Annual Conference gathers to worship God and conduct business. This term [not capitalized] refers to this yearly, multi-day convention.*

The term “session” refers to one meeting of the North Carolina Annual Conference occurring on any part of one of those days or to a meeting on a single day for a special or called session. For example, the minutes often refer to the “morning session of the first day of the annual conference” or to the “evening session of Friday of annual conference.” This document avoids the common practice of using the phrase “the annual conference session” to refer to the whole week of meetings in June. This document’s usage would designate that whole series of meetings as “the 2006 annual conference,” or “the 2009 annual conference,” for example

Rethink Church:

Bill Norton, Communications Director, presented the Rethink Church Communications Division campaign. He tossed a Rethink Church tee-shirt to Bishop Gwinn. Norton recognized Ken Sloan from UMC from Nashville who presented a video. Sloan talked about three strategies of Rethink Church: (1) To Change the perception of The United Methodist Church held by the people that are outside the church. (2) To redefine the churches' experience beyond Sundays and beyond their building. (3) To return to the first century model of church as an experience interwoven into people's lives. As the next evolution of the "Open hearts. Open minds. Open doors" welcoming and advertising campaign, RETHINK CHURCH seeks to redefine the church experience beyond the church doors and invite people to become engaged in the world. The campaign aims to spark a global conversation around the rhetorical question, "What if church were a verb?" More information can be found at 10thousanddoors.org or rethinkchurch.org.

Report of New Church Starts/Congregation Development:

Gary Allred presented the report for New Church and Congregational Development. Allred thanked Irene Brownlee for her work as acting Congregational Development Director over the past year. Allred talked about 3 questions he asks before embarking upon a project of any kind: (1) Do I believe in it? (2) Do I live it? (3) Do I believe others should live by it? The function and focus of the Congregational Development Team's strategies are: the Team believes in it, pastors, members and supporters have lived it directly, and they believe every pastor and congregation of the NC Annual Conference should live it. Members of the Commission on Congregational Development stood and received applause. A video showing ministries in new congregations was presented. Allred noted that Congregational Development is responsible for administering the $10 Club which in this past year gave a $50,000 grant to Trinity UMC in Sanford, a $25,000 grant to Evangelical Methodist Church of Condega, Nicaragua, and a grant for salary support for emerging Hispanic ministry in Apex. Churches receiving first year support were: Trinity UMC, Sanford; Water's Edge Campus of Trinity UMC, Hubert; Showers of Blessing Community Church, Cleveland Community; Abundant Life, Cary/Durham area; and Trinity Cleveland community of Johnston County. Second year churches receiving support were: Cornerstone Korean, Fayetteville; Crossroads, Fayetteville; Closer Walk, Leland; and Wakefield, Wake Forest. Many of the children in the general area of Closer Walk's location are on free or reduced lunch. The church has been approved to administer a government sponsored program and will serve free breakfasts and lunches to area children during the summer. Closer Walk will sponsor Vacation Bible School for three months between breakfast and lunch to reach out to the community and spread the Word. Matt Evans, Greater Heights (GO), shared what the people of Greater Heights have been doing. Fifteen of their members will travel to Jamaica in July to do construction for a church.

Report of the Trustees:

Chairperson Cashar Evans presented the report of the Conference Trustees. Evans directed attention to the written report of the Board of Trustees, which was a double-sided handout included in the registration packet. Evans asked Christine Dodson and her staff to stand and then expressed appreciation for their work with the Trustees. He gave an overview of the role of the Conference Trustees and highlighted several projects. Evans then directed the Conference to an update of the new 33,500 square feet building project. Ground-breaking was held May 28, 2009 and it expected to be completed by May 2010. He encouraged the Members to visit the website, which will be updated weekly, to see the progress on the building. Evans gave an update on the property which continues to be insured through the North Carolina Conference Property and Casualty Trust (PACT). PACT was formed as part of the denominational trust providing property and casualty insurance solutions for local churches He moved the adoption of the Report of the Trustees.

Point of Information:

Bob Kretzu, Parkwood (DU), rose to a point of information. Kretzu inquired about the funding of the new building with the proceeds from the sale of the old building, land and townhouse tract. He also inquired about the Wardlaw bequest and if the Trustees had complied with the family's intention. Evans replied that the sale of the old building and land had been completed but the Townhouse tract had not been sold to date and was still on the market. Concerning the Warlaw request, Evans stated that the original gift of land was subject to flooding depending on the lake's water level. The Trustees sold that tract and purchased another lot on the lake. The remaining funds from the original sale of the lake lots are invested. The Trustees are still in the process of determining how to best utilize the funds and if it feasible to have a lake home for clergy to use and share. John Bergland, Commission on Archives and History Chair, rose to a point of information. He was concerned about the amount of space needed for Archives and History. A corner of the media room in the new building has been allocated.

Point of Information:

Dennis Levin, Ayden (GR), rose to a point of information. Levin was concerned about the cost to carry liability insurance, especially given the sexual harassment policy rider. Levin asked if the Trustees had any intention of setting up a policy in which to insure local churches. Evans responded that the Trustees are continually frustrated with secondary carriers and with Zurich, the secondary carrier. PACT has put out for bids to (1) find a new secondary carrier or (2) get Zurich to respond more favorably. Evans also stated that at this time the Trustees do not have any plans for a Conference mandated insurance policy, although some Conferences have instituted such a policy. The Trustees continue to look for lower cost policies but have an equal or greater concern for adequate coverage.

Motion to Amend:

Reggie Ponder, Retired (GO), moved "that the Annual Conference Board of Trustees be directed to hold a hearing, duly noticed to all members of the Conference, board & agency chairs, staff and other interested parties who are part of the Annual Conference, to be given an opportunity to receive and review the plans for the new Conference headquarters, to share insights and concerns and to pose questions, as well as to offer suggestions concerning the proposed plans for the Conference Headquarters.” Ponder pled for full openness to ensure the building plans served the needs of all people. Bill Simpson, Conference Historian, rose to a point of information and expressed appreciation for Evans and the work of the Board of Trustees. Simpson spoke in favor of the Ponder motion and he, too, is concerned about the inadequate space provided for the Archives and History. Carol Goehring, Executive Director Conference Connectional Ministries rose to a point of information asking what the cost would be associated with the delay of the project, security and the environmental controls for the Archives. Evans replied that input had been solicited by email and on the website, a letter had been mailed in December, and there had been blurbs in the Treasurer’s report. Evans stated that the space in the building design is what the Commission on Archives and History had requested at that time. Evans further explained that on February 27, 2009 Simpson reviewed the plans and expressed concern at that time. Evans went on to say that an email was sent to Simpson prior to the final decision made on May 20, 2009. Simpson responded to that email stating he was out of the country and would respond when he returned. Evans stated he still has not received a response. During the last week of May, Evans asked about an additional 1,500 square feet. The consultants replied that it would cost another $255,500 and could possibly delay the project an additional 60 days because of scheduling the different agencies that must approve the building plans.

Bishop Gwinn declared Ponder’s motion an amendment to the report of the Trustees.

Point of Information: Arthur Warren, Vice President SEJ Historical Society, rose to a point of information. Warren stated on October 6, 2008 John Bergland was elected to replace him as the chair of the Commission on Archives and History. Warren stated that he had responded to emails and assumed they would get to the proper people during the transition of Commission chair. Evans responded he had not received the Warren emails. Carol Dean, Plank Chapel (DU), spoke against the Ponder amendment. She raised the issue of costs for new contracts and redesigning/re-engineering fees and urged the Conference to move forward with the project as designed. Dean inquired about using digital technology to preserve historic documents. Simpson again rose to a point of information stating that an original copy of most documents must be retained for archives. Simpson asked if the Conference could see the interior design of the building and if the interior walls could be moved. Evans replied that they could be moved.

Motion to End Debate:

Ginger Thomas, Duke Memorial (DU), rose and moved the previous question and debate was ended. Evans closed discussion by stating the plans approved on May 20, 2009 had been sent to the City of Garner and if changes were made to those plans, including the moving of interior walls, everything would need to go back through the approval process. The Bishop ordered the vote on the Ponder Amendment and the amendment failed. James Malloy, Sanford Circuit (SA), rose to a point of information and inquired if the building’s doors would meet the qualification for Safe Sanctuary doors. Evan replied that they would. Ken Ripley, lay member Spring Hope (RM), rose to a point of information concerning handicap access. Evans responded that the design team had included handicapped access as well as other features. The Bishop called for a vote to see if the Conference was interested in seeing the interior design of the new building. The initial vote was inconclusive. The Bishop then called for a standing vote and the Conference voted to examine the interior design of the new build. Bishop Gwinn asked for a visual of the interior design to be shown to the members later during Annual Conference.

Without objection, the Bishop brought the question before the Conference to adopt the report of the Trustees as presented by Evans. The Trustees report was adopted.

Report Higher Education and Campus Ministries:

Chairperson Carl King addressed the Conference and spoke about the positive influence Campus Ministry has in shaping Christians for active involvement in their churches. King talked about two ways Campus Ministry influences students: First, higher education is eliminating poverty by educating first generation college students. Second, Campus Ministry is strengthening clergy and lay leadership. This year there are six students enrolled who have answered the call to ministry. King asked that clergy whose lives have been shaped by Campus Ministry stand and be recognized. King then introduced the two new College Presidents: Dr. James Gray III, President of North Carolina Wesleyan College; and Dr. Mark La Branche, President of Louisburg College. Le Branche and Gray brought greetings to Conference. Bishop Gwinn challenged the entire Conference to speak positively of our NC Annual Conference Colleges.

Mike Safley, a member of the Board of Directors for the NC United Methodist Camp and Retreat Ministries, introduced Robert (Bobby) Harris III as the new Director of the North Carolina United Methodist Camp and Retreat Ministries. Harris stated that there will be 4,000 children involved in camping this summer and over 10,000 people in Retreat Ministries throughout the rest of the year. Harris had great fun with the Conference teaching them how to sound like pond frogs found at the Conference camps. Harris introduced Robbie Barrett and gave her the opportunity to tell a story about her camping experience. Barrett was honored for her gift of $100,000 to build the Barrett Cabin at Camp DonLee. Harris introduced Rhonda Parker, Camp Chestnut Ridge Director, and David Weber, Camp Rockfish Director. He reported that John Farmer is recovering from a quadruple bypass.. Harris concluded with a tee-shirt throw.

Report of the Task Force on Institutional Relationships:

Bill Simpson, Task Force Chair, presented the report and referred to the printed report in the 2009 Conference Workbook, page 76 and page 8 of the Book of Handouts, 2009. Simpson noted that his report included information concerning the conference-related institutions such as the colleges, children's homes, retirement homes, Asbury Homes and camps. He requested that the Conference Connectional Table set aside one day each year to celebrate the Ministry of the Conference's Institutions. The Bishop stated this would be added to the Conference calendar therefore a vote would not be required.

EVENING SESSION

Workshops:

In lieu of the Thursday evening service, five workshop sessions were offered to the clergy and lay delegation. In many cases the workshops had overflow crowds.

Those who attended the "Web Presence, Web Schmesence" program by Derek Leek and Douglas Ward learned why local church websites are important. They learned about a new initiative to provide local churches with assistance in easily creating and maintaining their websites for a relatively low cost.

"Mining for Conflict" was led by Beth Chrismon, a consultant with Plowpoint Consulting Services. Chrismon provided a humorous and thoughtful presentation on what she calls "healthy storming," realizing that conflict itself can be a natural byproduct of church transformation.

"Mission: Possible, Transforming Existing Congregations" was led by the Reverend Dr. Reggie Ponder. This was a very helpful workshop on transforming existing congregations.

Emily Innes and Christine Dodson, in their workshop, addressed the often asked question: "Where does that Conference money go?" They showed how our connectional giving changes lives for the sake of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

"Reaching and Transforming the Lives of a New Generation" was led by the Reverend Marty Cauley. Reaching young adults and the un-churched was the theme of Cauley's workshop in which participants heard from young people about what kind of church they seek.

Trustees Chair Cashar Evans returned to present the plans for the interior design of the new building. . The interior floor plan has been posted to the website and a virtual tour is available on the website. Evans recognized Christine Dodson, Conference Treasurer, who conducted the virtual tour. A floor plan was displayed on the screens. Dodson explained that there would not be a snack bar in the new building because the building code made it cost-prohibitive. The Bishop asked for questions. Douglas Wagner, Rougemont (DU), rose to a point of information and asked how truly green the plans were for the driveway, and the two-foot sloped roof. He further inquired about how the water run-off would be used. Evans replied that the driveway and position of the building were strategically placed to save as many trees as possible; there is an innovative technique used in the roofing system which is LEED certified; and the water run-off would be treated (another part of LEED certification) but there were no present plans to use the water at this time. Evans then elaborated on his response to Bob Kretzu's inquiry made the previous day regarding the sale of the property. Evans clarified that the old Methodist Building and land sale was completed August 2008 and the proceeds are invested. The tract of land on which the townhouses sit is still on the market. Evans stated that the proceeds from the sale and invested income will fund the new building project.

Ferrell Blount, lay member Bethel (GR), asked "that this body again validate the work already done by our trustees relating to the construction of our new building. With a resounding affirmative vote we approve the floor building plans and finance plan this morning, saying to our trustees well done we they should move forward on this project with great dispatch."
